The real object of education is to give children resources that will endure as long as life endures, habits that time will
ameliorate not destroy, occupations that will render sickness tolerable, solitude pleasant,
age venerable, life more dignified and useful,
and death less terrible.

The 1950 Totem shows that education at South Side is more than that which is derived from books alone. Here are cultivated in students those everlasting resources which will make life more dignified and useful and solitude more pleasant. Here character and social qualities are developed which will grow in value as time goes by.

To remind you
Of the wonderful times
We've had at Beautiful Archerland.

Events

Remember the first day when we were freshmen, the elevator, the very wet fountain, and the tickets to the pep sessions? Remember the muddy football games on the "drained" stadium field, the thrilling basketball games, and the after-game dances? Remember the club picnics packed with fun and food, and the more formal banquets held as the year drew on? Remember grade-day and locker clean-up with all the excitement of an anticipated vacation? Remember the very inspiring assemblies at Thanksgiving and Easter and jolly Santa at Christmas? Remember signing Totems in center hall, Recognition Day, the seniors in their caps and gowns, graduation, and the last day at South Side? After our years of study at South Side, these are the memories we cherish which will render solitude pleasant.

Sports

Remember the count of 1-2-3-4 as we did push-ups on the gym floor, and remember the shouts of excitement during a close volleyball or softball game as we learned good habits of physical fitness in our physical education classes? Remember the dancing and swimming classes in which we developed grace and coordination? Remember how we learned the purpose of teamwork and cooperation in intramurals and GAA, and how we learned the true meaning of sportsmanship both as active participants in and spectators of varsity sports? Remember how experience taught us to accept a referee's decision?—and remember how we cheered our hearts out to support our teams and took it as one of life's bumps when we lost? It was in our active support of athletics that we learned it was 'how we played the game' that counts and it was here we formed the sportsmanlike habits that time will ameliorate, not destroy.

Coach Marion "Feas" Feasel, our likable maker of champions

Football . . .

Archers earn successful season

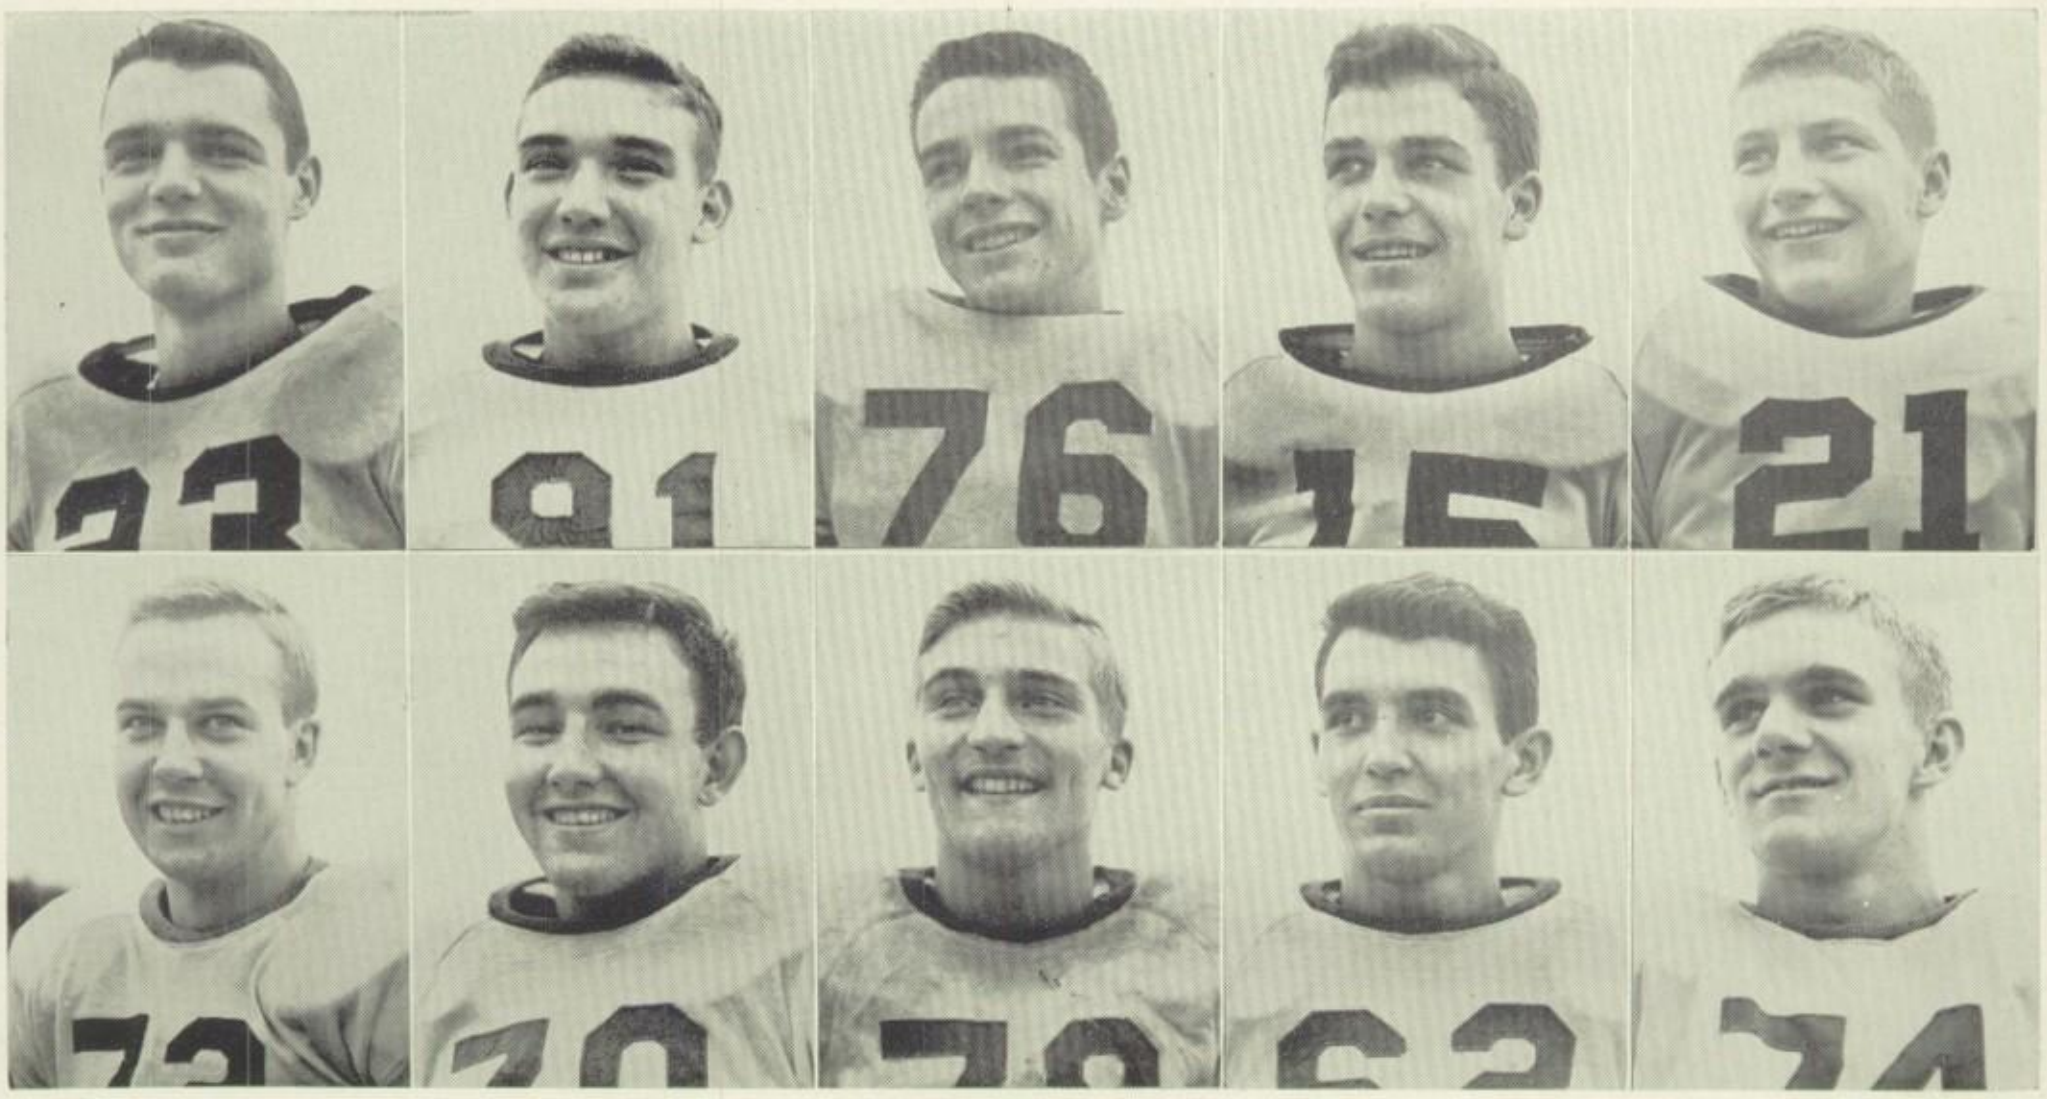
Even though our Archer gridmen were unsuccessful in retaining the city football title, they were successful in becoming "real champions" in the hearts and minds of all the South Side faculty and students. A real impressive 6 wins-3 losses record was chalked up by the boys, under the excellent coaching job of Mr. Marion Feasel.

A group of boys, very much capable of winning, gave every ounce of strength they had and fought down to the last wire in that clash with the Tigers, November 11, for the city championship. The Green lost that important one 19 to 14, and finished second in city competition.

The successful gridiron season at Archerdom was not due to an outstanding "star" or two, but it was just the result of a lot of hard work, practice, and determination on the part of all the players on the football squad.

Our speeding, driving backfield was made up of the hardworking lads, Everett Tunget, Tom Skole, Merle Hettler, Jerry Ellenwood, Arnie Hofmann, and Howard Esterline. Hofmann saw very limited action because of a serious injury; but while he was in there, it took a powerful lot of enemy tacklers to stop him. Ellenwood took his place and did a fine job at the plunging position.

A good backfield would be a complete failure without a strong forward wall. We'll remember that the Kelly line was one of the strongest in the state, for such boys as Dick Wert, Tom Lebamoff, Dick Eitman, Norm Fryback,



Stan Collyer
Jerry Ellenwood

Gary Fryback
Dick Rian

Bill Davis
Tom Skole

Neil Clauser
Bob Loomis

Jerry Holloway
Everett Tunget

Dick Rian, and Bill Levy added a great deal of punch and power to the line in front.

Our superb reserve strength is not to be overlooked as a determining factor in our victorious campaign; and also, the consistent place-kick conversions by Bill Davis will not be forgotten.

Hats off to Mr. Feasel, the assistant coaches, and all the hard working boys who had a great football season!

Basketball . . . Stebmen Win City Crown

South Side's hardwooders marched through an excellent 1949-50 campaign to be crowned undisputed City Champions! They're undisputed titlists, because no city team was able to conquer Glen Stebing's well-coached crew during regular City Series play. Strong quintets like Auburn's Red Devils, the Comets of Kendallville, South Bend's Washington, Indianapolis' Shortridge, the Owls of Muncie, and Gary's Tolleston all fell by the wayside after meeting the Kellymen.

After completing regular season matches and winning early-round Sectional meet games, the Archers met up with the always-tournament-inspired Tigers of Central and lost to them by one small point, 35 to 34.

Coach Stebing, the assistant mentors, and all the varsity and reserve boys deserve a lot of credit for a fine campaign, a 16 win-7 loss record. The sound of pounding basketballs could be heard in the gymnasium for many hours after the close of school each day in those winter basketball months. Yes, the boys labored hard to learn the tricks of the basketball trade; and they came up with a squad that will long be remembered here at Archerland.

The long one-handed, swishing push shots of tiny senior forward, Merle "Mel" Hettler, who wound up second in the city's individual scoring race; the sensational and very timely scoring spurts of fast moving, tricky Gene Towns; the great under-the-basket fight and drive of Norm "Gooch" Fryback; Jerry Ellenwood's outstanding play and much-needed coolness at crucial times in crucial tilts; and the brilliant floor play and great ball-stealing work of Alex Tsiguloff —all were blended together to make one fine team. Tom Skole, Jack Miller, and the rest of the gang were really important too. We'll not forget one of them.

Track . . . Archers Really Amble on the Ashes

It took a while for Coach George Collyer's tracksters to "set the pace" due to a lack of experienced boys, but late in the season they started to move and came up with a mighty fine cinder crew for 1950.

Ev Tunget, who gained recognition last year as a good shot putter, did even better this year in throwing the iron ball and walked off with several first place medals. The broad and high jump departments suffered from the loss of last year's ace, Bill Beery; but Mel Hettler, Charles Littlejohn, and Bill Davis did well in the broad jumps; and Warren Anderson cleared the high jump bar, set up at nearly six feet.

Our star sprinter, Keith Darby, was back again this year and did outstanding work in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. Don Personett, Bill Davis, and Hettler turned in fine performances in the sprints.

Tom Skole, Ronnie Stauffer, Stan Collyer, and Ed Clark did the one-around-the-oval in good time. John "Flash" LaBrash gained much attention with his burning up the track in the 880-yard run. His last year's 1:59.8 mark and his fast times turned in this year were nothing less than the best.

Harley Stuntz, senior cross country speedster, turned in good times in the exciting-to-watch mile run. His pace was set by Allan Suttor and Jim LaBrash. Lee Johnson, Jerry Holloway, and Littlejohn stepped off the hurdles in good fashion.

All in all, Coach Collyer did a brilliant job of rebuilding the track squad, and the many underclassmen who saw much action this season are real promises for an even finer cinder campaign next year.

Top: In front are Don Lahrman, heavyweight tennis and horseshoe champ; Jim Tarr, middleweight tennis and horseshoe winner; Robert Godfrey, lightweight tennis champ; and in back is Tom Astrom, lightweight horseshoe titlist.

Bob Davis, middleweight free throw champion; John Koomjohn, heavyweight champion; and Robert Garrison, best foul tosser among the lightweights.

Badminton champs Robert Godfrey, Keith Neuhauser, and Jerry Pontius.

Intramurals . . . Everyone an Athlete

Every Archer fellow can take part in athletics at South Side through the fast-moving Intramural Program, under the guidance of well-liked Louis A. Briner and jolly Wayne Scott.

Almost every boy is sports-minded; and since only a few boys are capable of making the varsity squads, 'mural activities give them opportunities to display their skills in varied athletic activities. This program also gives the boys a chance for recreation after a long, hard day of studies is over.

The participants are given a fair chance, for competition is divided according to three weight divisions, light, middle and heavyweight. Some of the popular activities are tag football, basketball, track, softball, tennis, golf, bowling, volleyball, and wrestling.

Yes, every year, the South Side boys have a great time in intramurals!

The GAA has as sponsors Miss Helen Pohlmeyer and Mrs. Alice Keegan.

Don't forget the women

The GAA activities are a carry over from the sports program in the regular gym classes. It is the largest club in the school with an average of 400 girls participating each week. There is only one requirement for continued membership which is to have all passing grades. A numeral is awarded to the girl who earns 300 points. With 1500 points, a letter is presented and with 2000 points, a pin. Each year the girl with the highest number of points is honored by having her name engraved on the placque that hangs in the gym office.

GAA was established not only for fun, but to make girls better physically, mentally, and socially.

Each year at the close of the regular basketball season each class selects its eight best players to battle in the basketball honor tournament. Ann Koenecke, captain of the seniors, spurred the team on to cop the crown. The seniors, pictured on the middle right on the next page, are, front row: Jenny Hey, Shirley Brateman, and Joyce Stoops; second row: Shirley Haggerty, Ruth Ehle, Ann Koenecke, Kay Lamb, and Winnie Crawford.

In January, a potluck banquet, "Point-Time Parleys", was held to present numerals, letters, and pins.

Tumbling followed volleyball, and then came track. To end the season, the gals grabbed the baseball bats and slammed plenty of home runs.

"Oh! How I Hate To Get Up In The Morning" was the first number in the show, and was done up in fine style by one of the dance groups. The lower left hand picture is an action shot of this dance. Other dances are done to "Night and Day", "Scandalize My Name", and "Strolling Through The Park." In the lower right hand picture, we get a squint at the Advanced Modern Ballet group as they perform to the music of "Deep Purple."

The GAA members staged a volleyball game for the spectators, which was followed by an interesting and exciting game of giant volleyball. The gym classes did a folk dance to "Glow Worm" and "Good Night Ladies."

Faculty

Remember the teachers who were so helpful when we entered South Side as bewildered freshmen and remember what good friends they became as we got to know them better? Remember how carefully they worked with us in planning our programs so that we would be able to spend our time most wisely and how they encouraged our participation in extra curricular activities so that we might reap the best rewards from our high school days? Remember how much fun we had with them 'after hours' in our clubs and class banquets and parties? Remember how much time they devoted to helping us make those parties a success? Remember how much knowledge they imparted to us, both by their teachings and by their very worthy examples of a fine life? It is this leadership which will help us choose, in later years, occupations that will render life more dignified.

R. Nelson Snider

Principal

Our school's scholastic and extra-curricular achievements have always been outstanding, because we have an outstanding leader, R. Nelson Snider. Our principal, with his twinkling eyes and beaming smile, is a real friend, who has won the trust and confidence of all.

"Their ways are ways of pleasantness." This best describes Mary Jane Grabner and Frances Stobaugh, the two girls who guide our office so efficiently.

Merle J. Abbett

Superintendent of Schools

Responsible for formulating and administering the educational policies which shape our future is Merle J. Abbett, superintendent of schools. He is always ready to study the problems of the school and the student, and to plan for the advancement of the Fort Wayne school system.

Martha Pittenger, Dean

Taking a deep interest in each individual student is our reliable dean, Miss Martha Pittenger. Her sympathetic understanding of young people and inexhaustible patience make her a true friend to all South Siders.

Paul Sidell, Guidance

We are all familiar with our always-smiling guidance director, Mr. Paul Sidell. He is eager to help us choose the proper study program which will equip us for our life's work.

Some of our faculty members have been teaching at South Side since the opening of the school in 1922, and others for nearly that long. These teachers are honored at the annual Quarter Century banquet, when new members are taken in. A view of the 1949 dinner is shown above. The smiling faces indicate it to be a most enjoyable occasion.

The cooks: Mary Deal, Belle Arnold, Linnie Chronister, and Alice Koehler.

The press room workers: Elmer Harkenrider, Verne Ireland, and Charles Nelson.

They Also Serve

The services of the custodians, cooks, and press room workers are very necessary to the smooth running of our school. Long after we have gone home, these people are still working hard to get things in shape for the next day. The custodians clean up the rooms and halls. The press room workers not only print The Times, but do all the printing for the School City of Fort Wayne. Of course, the cooks plan and prepare those wonder cafeteria meals under the direction of Miss Lucy Mellen. The importance of their jobs is as clear to them as it is to us.

Mr. Charles Winkler, a long faithful worker, died of a heart attack while on duty.

The custodians: Edward Smith, Charles Winkler, Esther Bowers, Dessie Spears, Herman Dreyer, head custodian, and Gerald Motherwell.

The engineer and firemen: Herschall O'Shaughnessey, Joseph Hansen, engineer, and Russell Seltenright.

Another pleasant memory of this year is the annual faculty Christmas party. Here they are shown singing carols.

Miss Dochterman is proudly showing off the handiwork of her students on "Back-to-School Night." The parents seem to be quite impressed.

Miss Kiefer is a new member of the Quarter Century Club. Here Beverly Stern is presenting a pin to her.

A gala occasion for the faculty is the Quarter Century Banquet. Four more teachers became members this year.

Every year the faculty and their families take time out for a picnic. Plenty of food and entertainment are the chief characteristics of this event.

This happy quintet is a part of the "Boiler Room Gang." They are shown relaxing in their club room.

Classes

Remember the rousing panel and heated classroom discussions in which we benefited by the opinions of our fellow classmates? Remember the many skills and bits of knowledge that we tucked away in our minds for future use?—the practical skills we learned in business and math, the ways to meet emergencies in first aid and health, and the ways in which to prevent them in safety class? Remember how, in our history and government classes, we gained a greater understanding of the world in which we live, and in our art and language classes gained a greater appreciation of the beauty of that life? Best of all, remember how we learned to study and apply ourselves, learning to make the best use of our time? It was here in our classes with our fellow classmates that we gained possession of mental resources that will endure as long as life endures.

The officers and advisers we have chosen to guide us through our last year are pictured above. They are, left to right: Norman Fryback, secretary-treasurer; Ivan Lebamoff, social council; Everett Tunget, vice-president; Miss Mary Graham, adviser; Mr. J. H. McClure, adviser; Duncan Whitaker, president; Nancy Barr, social council; and John Koomjohn, social council.

Seniors . . .

The year of 1950 has at last arrived and our four years at South Side are now fulfilled. Our senior year seemed an eternity away when we entered in 1946, but it has come and is fast going.

Our freshman year did not hold much for us as a class, but who can forget following our basketball team down to Muncie to the Super Regionals? 1947 also marked South Side's 25th anniversary, and the wonderful assembly when we learned of the history and purpose of our school.

When we were sophomores, we looked forward to our party with the theme, "Dutch Treat." It was loads of fun and became our first class memory.

At last we became upperclassmen and our first event with this exalted status was the Junior Banquet which carried the theme of "Courtin' Daze". We will never forget our Prom. It was named "Southern Serenade", and the decorations were beautiful. We made almost life-size trees and found we had built them too big to get out of the room. It was finally managed to the satisfaction of all, and the gym was transformed into the terrace of an old southern plantation.

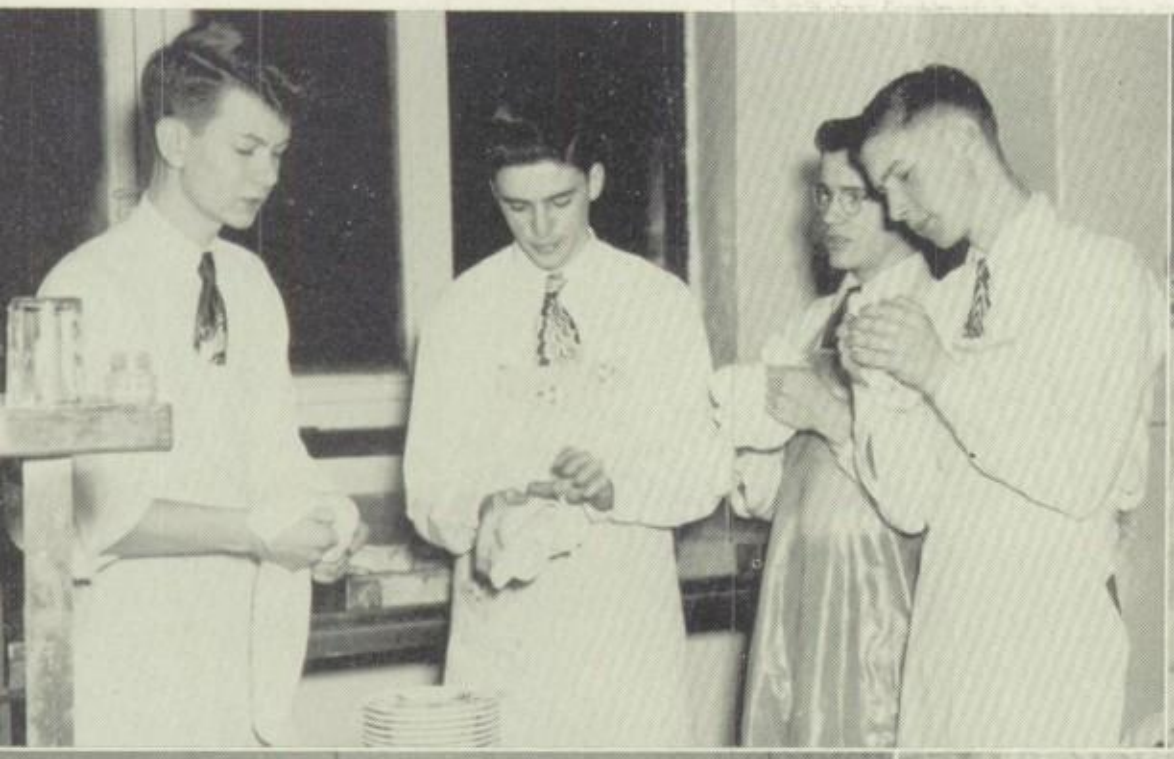
The beginning of the end was our Senior Reception. Here we introduced our parents to the officers and advisers. Soon followed the banquet which was appropriately named, "So Well Remembered". April brought the Senior Play when we seniors showed our dramatic talents. Ivy Day then arrived with its lovely ceremony, and we began to realize it was almost all over.

On Recognition Day we came forth in our caps and gowns to receive the honors for which we had worked so hard. Baccalaureate gave us spiritual guidance, and our last social get-together was the Senior Dance held the night before Graduation.

Bonnie Hull, Sally Harshman, and Carol Roembke serve at the Senior Reception

At last the long-awaited evening arrived, and we received our diplomas, turned our tassels, and walked down the long flight of stairs to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance and into the future.

The members of the Class of 1950 will always look back on these last four years with fondest memories, and we thank South Side for everything it has done for us.



David Neighbour, Keith Myers, Jim Reinhard, and Terry Edgar demonstrate their musculine powers after the Reception.

Our class is certainly not lacking in musical talent, what with Stanley Collyer and Sonia Evanoff to represent us. Sonia is also the winner of the Randolph Jacobs' Trophy for service.

There seems to be something a little turned around in this picture. At any rate it is Ann Koenecke and Norm Fryback, our athletes.

Standing are Ann Dygert, the best girl speaker, and Ivan Lebamoff holding the masculine counterpart. Seated are Dean Smith and Beverly Morris who have attained the enviable positions of handsomest boy and cutest girl.

Jerry Dreisbach and Duncan Whitaker have been elected to be the most likely to succeed and to have done the most for the school.

Engaging in a snowball fight are Nancy Barr, the girl with the best personality; Jim Reinhard, boy with the best personality and the most perfect gentleman; and Helen Bennett, the most perfect lady.

In order for a senior to become a member of the National Honor Society, he must be outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service during the years he attended South Side High School. To fifty seniors of the South Side Class of '50 went recognition in the form of membership in this society.

Ronnie W. Bracht, D. Richard Brown, Harold Curry, Robert Glen Derickson, Estelle Carole King, James McCrory, James Edgar Albert Nuttle, Paul F. Perrine, Delores Phillimore, Carl Conrad Scheuman, Thomas Alan Whiting, and Arline Woods.

Those listed below are being graduated as a result of taking the General Educational Development Test:

Charles J. Eskew, Willis E. Fink, Wayne J. Hook, Robert Arthur Hosford, Donald Koonce, Darold E. McCormick, Robert Hugh Reynolds, Howard H. Schremser, Lamont C. Snyder, Arthur C. Swain, and Donald Jene Whittington.

Juniors . . .

The juniors, with their capable officers leading them, began their third year's activities with the colorful Junior Banquet, "Carnival Tropicana", held in the cafeteria on November 18. All the decorations were carried out in a Spanish theme adding gaiety to the affair. These juniors, looking forward to their last year in high school set an example for the underclassmen by their high scholastic records and extra curricular activities.

The biggest event for the juniors came on May 5 when their Junior Prom was held in the gymnasium. The many events left the juniors with the feeling that they had accomplished much during the year but that there was much more to look forward to in the coming year.

'Way last October the jaunty juniors filled out class poll questionaires with the results showing several ties. This showed that there were so many outstanding juniors that one person could not be singled out for a particular honor.

"Southern Serenade" was the name of the 1949 Junior Prom as shown in the upper left photo. The band can be seen playing on the veranda of the make-believe southern colonial mansion.

Decorating for the Junior Prom last year are some industrious students working on those beautiful trees in the next lower photo.

Most deserving of the titles "most perfect gentleman" and "most perfect lady" are Rodger Martin and Sue Briner, who are pictured in the next lower photograph. Seated next to Sue is none other than Wayne Stinson, the "class clown."

Working hard on that Junior Banquet, "Carnival Tropi-

Everyone looked his best and had a grand time at the 1949 Junior Prom, "Southern Serenade."

Sophomores . . .

Arm in arm the officers of the Class of 1952 stride confidently through the portals of South Side. This year the sophomores had the first social event of their high school career, the Sophomore Party, and also elected officers and advisers for the first time. Looking at the smiling faces and determined feet in the picture

Upper right: Standing on the steps of South Side looking very trim are Sue Beery, chosen the best girl athlete by her classmates; Jackie Hurt, the cutest girl; and John Sweet, who captured the titles of the best boy athlete and also the most handsome boy.

Lower right: "Cagey Capers" begins to take form as Phyllis Hasse hammers, Sylvia Polhamus, Jerry Ellenwood, and Donna Cupp paint an elephant, and Janet Thomas hammers.

While fans cheer on the sidelines, a fighting Archer is tackled by a mighty Gary Froebel team. Judging from the dirty faces and uniforms, it was a tough game.

It is always said that a good beginning is half the battle; and, if this is true, you'd better get ready to watch out for the class of '53, 'cause these freshmen are really going to go places at South Side.

Right off the bat, these kids came over here all set to make the place jump. Before the opening day, they all met in study hall to learn everything possible about their new home and to see what makes it tick.

About the first real project they attempted was the Freshman-Sophomore Speech contest, and you all remember how successful that was. And you remember also the enthusiasm they showed at pep sessions and games last season. Here's one thing for sure: They're little only in name and size.

In the upper left-hand corner you see Mr. Snider talking to the new freshies in study hall on the day before they made their grand entrance.

Upper right: Bob Nelson and Ruth Havens, whom their classmates chose as the best boy and girl speakers among the freshmen.

Above in the lower left corner are Don Rife and Carol Bowser, the most athletic in the class. Standing next to them are smiling Ellen Hoham, who took top honors for the cutest girl, and Jack Johnson, the most handsome boy.

Lower right: Standing by the piano is Johnny Erwin, who is not only the best boy musician, but also is the freshman "personality boy." Arlene Dubrove, seated at the piano, was voted the best girl musician, and Carol Schneider, standing, is the girl with the best personality.

Lower right: Jim Craig, the most perfect gentleman, is talking to Sally Gilbert, voted as the most perfect lady. Looking on is Ted Gugler, who tied for most perfect gentleman.

Clubs

Remember before we entered South Side how we visited the school and were told what excellent clubs it had? Remember how we looked into the situation and joined the ones we felt would provide us with the most useful opportunities? Remember how we had a chance to work with each other on a more cooperative basis than was sometimes possible in our classes, how we learned to render service to others, and how we learned the value of literature? Remember how we learned to work with business men and women of various occupations, how we learned to write, to speak before others with poise, and to preside over meetings? Remember how we gradually learned to stand on our own two feet, to think ahead, and to work with others in planning for the future. It is this fine practical experience gained through our clubs that enables us now to have occupations that will render life more useful.

Mr. Robert T. Drummond

Band . . .
Orchestra . . .

They've Got Rhythm

For all those students that are interested in music, the band and orchestra offer many opportunities. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Drummond the students grow into better musicians.

Whenever South plays other schools in any sport our band is always out in the lead. Their clever music numbers brighten up basketball games and keeps the school spirit alive at football games.

During the winter the band and orchestra have regularly scheduled concerts and assemblies. The fine music that they play is always an inspiration to all music lovers.

The music ship is guided on its way by Captain Sonia Evanoff, while the secretary, Lois Stultz, takes down the nautical readings. Quartermaster Jean Beeler takes care of the comfort of the ship.

CHOIR

Mutiny on the High C

"Eyes up! Sing!" are Mr. Hostetler's familiar instructions to the South Side choir. Beside providing music for school assemblies and the two annual concerts, the choir presents programs for luncheons, churches, and the P.T.A.

Once again this year they presented their annual Mother's Day program at Simpson Methodist Church and participated in the City Music Festival.

New on their agenda were the Good Friday service at the Paramount Theater and their long-to-be-remembered trip to Purdue University to hear Fred Waring's group.

Yell Leaders Organization

At the games it is always a pleasure to watch all the gymnastics through which the yell leaders go. The numerous pep sessions that were held this last year were always brightened by the spirit of the yell leaders.

Top: The yell leaders were caught in the act of planning the motions for a new yell. Kneeling are Eugene Hosler, Jim Swank, and Ned Huss. Behind them are Rodger Martin, Bob Voelkel, Ed Clark, and Jim Tapp.

Center: Here Rodger Martin, Jim Tapp, Ed Clark, and Bob Voelkel were caught in action. It seems that they were right in the middle of a huuuurah.

CAMERA

They Make a Pretty Picture

In the fall semester Camera Club was reorganized. It was sponsored by Mr. Ernest Walker. The club had many interesting meetings when men in the community gave lectures on cameras and photography.

Demaree's Darlings

The Philalethian Literary Society or Philo, as it is commonly known, has many wonderful times each year under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Demaree. All the Philo girls will remember the annual Saint Patrick Day Banquet.

Top: This is a scene from the banquet. Here are five 10-A's dancing the Irish Lilt at the banquet.

Bottom: Vice-president Nancy Betz is presenting the white and gold Philo ribbons to the initiates.

Future Philos

Meterite is one of the most popular clubs at South Side for underclass girls. The girls study poetry, short stories, novels, and the drama.

Top: This is a scene from the Meterite play given last year.

Center: This is a day to which all young Meterites look forward with mixed emotion. It is the day that Meterites graduate and receive certificates. Here Jean Forehand is giving the gavel to the new president.

Bottom: Pictured here are the Meterites who gave the pins to the new Quarter Century Club members. The Meterite Club traditionally buys the pins each year.

WRANGLERS

Words, Words, Words

Center: Tina Lazoff, Mr. Robert Plummer, Ruth Makey, Vollmar Frieze, Joyce Roark, Dick Johnson, and Phyllis Schonefeld at the speakers' table are listening to the Seniors bid their farewells at the Wranglers Banquet.
Bottom: At Wranglers dance, "The Basket Ball", a king and queen were chosen. They were Susan McNabb and Alex Tsiguloff, third and fourth from the right.

BOOSTER

For You We'd Gladly BUY

Top: Bob Bates and Wallace Allen of the Booster Club are selling cokes at a football game. It looks as if Wally has invented a new way of getting coke from the bottle to the paper cups.
Center: Busy at work is this group of Booster members as they count money that was taken in. They are LaDonna Schweizer, Frank Frary, Miss Fortney, Don Brattain, Shirley Richard, Jean Forehand, and Wally Allen.
Bottom: Here Booster is seen selling more popcorn and coke.

Uncured Hams

The Student Players Club is one of the most popular at South. The plays that Miss Margery Suter produces are tops. The highlight of every year at South is the production of the Junior One Acts and the Senior Play!

Top: Another highlight is the initiates' party held at North Side Auditorium. The initiates are taking their curtain call after a pleasing performance preceding the party. As soon as the grease paint is off the initiates will be the guests at a dance held in North Side cafeteria.

Lower: Pictured here is the play of the year! You'll never guess who that charming young lady really is. There is Stan Greene at the left throwing his heart at the feet of none other than 'Miss' Larsh Rothert while 'Papa' Terry Edgar looks on.

MATH-SCIENCE

Ain't Science Grand?

Once a month on Friday night, all those students at South who are interested in mathematics or science meet in the Greeley Room to learn more about their favorite subject. Miss Adelaide Fiedler and Mr. Lloyd Whelan are the apt sponsors. Throughout the year men in the fields of science and industry are asked to speak at meetings.

Top: Some of the faithful members of Math-Science are singing. "The Old Math-Science Club."

Bottom: At one of the meetings Mr. Charles P. Hayes from the General Electric came to South and spoke. Mr. Hayes is showing his equipment to Duncan Whitaker, Peggy Bridges, and Harold Nagel, first semester officers.

36 WORKSHOP
The Assembly Line

The Christmas, Thanksgiving, and talent show assemblies are planned and the Easter assembly assisted by the 36 Workshop under the direction of Miss Lucy Osborne. At the meetings of the club, plans are formulated. Then between meetings small committees go to work in Room 36 and a finished product comes out in the form of an assembly.

Duncan Whitaker and Carolyn Gipe served as the presidents this year.

Center: These talented Archers performed well at the 1949 talent show, the "Gay Nineties Revue."

Bottom: Workshop's Thanksgiving program speakers were Jim Smith, Carol Roembke, and Alan Bunner. South Side's choir provided the music for the assembly.

LIBRARY

To These Our Books are Due

Library Club helps to carry on the work in the library. These students under the direction of Miss Emma Shoup learn to check out, shelve, and card books. The spring semester officers were Ramona Eme, president; Sue Whiteman, vice-president; Donna Rhodes, secretary; Phyllis Berning, point recorder, and Bill Hodges, sergeant-at-arms.

Bottom: Bill Hodges, Donna Rhodes, Pauline Ford, and Nancy Barr are checking out books after school while Loren Millikan is looking for a reference book.

TRAVEL

Now We're Going Places

If you like to know about far away places, Travel Club is for you. Mr. Billiard, the sponsor, sees to it that the meetings are interesting. Different countries and places are discussed and movie pictures and slides are shown.

Top: Sally Harshman, treasurer; Phyllis Voltz, vice-president; Gloria Beckman, president; and Mary Theodore, secretary, are seated around the officers' table listening to Mr. Edmund Miessler tell about his recent trip to Brazil.

Bottom: Jim Reinhard, sergeant-at-arms, is telling about the revised spring program.

RIFLE

Snap, Crackle, POP

These Archers playing like the Lone Ranger are Mr. Francis Fay's Rifle Club members. There is both an upper and underclass division of this club for boys.

Top: The boys are down at the target range sharpening their shootin' eyes.

VISUAL EDUCATION

Seein' Things?

Mr. Wilson makes plans for the week with some of the Visual Education workers who operate the machines in the Greeley Room.

LETTERMEN

Give 'em a Yell

A committee of Lettermen make plans with Mr. Sidell for their annual dance. The famed food at the Lettermen Banquet is a feature attraction of their second yearly event.

HI-Y

Hi-Y'd and Handsome

The Hi-Y Club for junior and senior fellows provides good entertainment and helps to build character. The highlights of the Hi-Y year are the Best Girl Banquet, Queen of Hearts Dance, and their spring trip. An interesting, educational program is held at the "Y" each Monday evening.

Top: Thirty-two Hi-Y members are ready to board their chartered bus to Washington, D. C. Their 1949 spring vacation was well spent touring the nation's capital.

U. S. A.

Unity, Service, Appreciation

The members of U.S.A., the "Y" club for freshman and sophomore girls, live up to the club motto: to make and give the best. In their two service meetings of the year, they made toys for the Day Nursery and favors for the city-wide Y-Teen Banquet.

Top: The cabinet members plan the programs for the year, which include an outside speaker, the Christmas party, the music meeting, and the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet. Gathered around Miss Fortney and Mrs. Welty, the advisers, are, left to right, Phyllis Byers, Maxine Crain, Jude Berghorn, Marilyn Dunfee, Dorothy Blair, Gloria Beck, Marleen Schmidt, and Sylvia Heistand.

Bottom: One of the most impressive services of U.S.A. is its candlelight initiation service. This is followed by a very fine membership party.

SO-SI-Y

Founded in Friendship

So-Si-Y's annual Faculty Tea is one of the highlights of the school year. Miss R. Hazel Miller and Miss Beulah Rinehart are the advisers for this pleasant club. Pictured here in the top snap is Ramona Eme as she presides over the Faculty Tea. For this event each member of So-Si-Y invites a teacher for an hour of conversation, entertainment, and refreshments.

In the lower picture, gathered around a table in the Greeley Room, are members of So-Si-Y. They are offering their gifts at the Chocolate Bar meeting last semester. The chocolate bars were sent to the YWCA, which sent them to Europe. This is only one of the many good deeds that So-Si-Y does in the course of one year.

SERVICE

Willing Slaves

Service Club is one of the South Side clubs that is indispensable. All the little odds and ends that need to be done about this school are done by members of Service Club. There are no regular meetings of this organization, but they are as much a part of this school as all the other clubs put together.

Max Hobbs, in the top picture, is delivering his speech at the Service Club Banquet. His topic is The Value of Service. His speech must have been very funny, because Mr. Snider is really enjoying himself!

TO GO

The General Managers of The Times this year are gathered around Miss Harvey and Patsy. They are Ann Dygert, Jim Reinhard, Carol Roembke, and Janet Forkert.

The Times . . .

Our Times are Good Times

The South Side Times is among the best high school newspapers in our country. During the last year The Times received International Honor Rating, the highest possible award, from Quill and Scroll; and the George H. Gallup Award for outstanding service to the school. Peggy Bridges and LaVerne Christ received individual awards for feature writing from Quill and Scroll and Scholastic Magazine.

The National Scholastic Press Association again awarded The Times an All-American rating for both semesters.

For twenty-six years The South Side Times has received the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Medalist Award, and this year is no exception. In addition the sports page received an All-Columbian award for being the best among schools whose enrollment is from 1,000 to 1,500.

Last fall The South Side Times won first in the state contest conducted by Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity at Indiana University, and was on exhibit at the State Fair.

Upper right: The four faithful that held down the copy jobs were Sharon Smith, Maurice Forkert, press room assistant; Lowell Dare, Loren Millikan, and Sharon King, the managing editor.

Lower left: Three necessary people are the outside subscription manager, the mailing editor, and the auditor. Carolyn Wedge increased the outside subscriptions so that it kept Virginia Harvill busy mailing. Judy Wilks was auditor.

Lower right: Here is the circulation department. Seated are Bethany Hoot, assistant circulation manager, and Nancy Karns, circulation manager. Standing are Dick Solomon, Nancy Plasket, Nancy Betz, and Sue Briner, assistant managers.

Those who served as editors this year are Beverly Morris, classroom news; Charmaine Bergstedt, feature; LaDonna Schweizer and Peggy Bridges, editorial; Jane Heistand, news; and Jane Hattendorf, feature.

Totem 1950 . . .

They Make Yearbook Your Book

After many hours of working and worrying, the staff of the 1950 Totem was relieved when the puzzling pieces of pictures, proofs, copy, and engravings began to fit together in the shape of a yearbook.

Those who contributed materially to the production of the 1950 Totem number into the hundreds. There are the students whose subscriptions made the book possible, the teachers whose cooperation during picture-taking time was exceptional, the company representatives who helped the staff make plans, and, of course, Miss Harvey who contributed the needed push and technical know-how.

Pictured on the opposite page are the ever-faithful staff members who worked many hours inside the little Totem cage of Room 16.

The head photographer and associate editor, Dave Neighbour, and the editor, Jerry Dreisbach, take a peek at the proof for the 1950 Totem.

Far left, top: Sharon King, at the typewriter, is the editor of the faculty section, while Carolyn Gipe served in the same capacity for the club section.

Far left, bottom: The three office managers who spent their fifth periods and after school hours counting picture and subscription money are Joan Uetrecht, Nancy Lakin, and Sue McNabb.

Near left, top: Carol Sielaff, circulation manager, and her assistant, Helen Bennett, have the arduous job of keeping the money straight.

Near left, center: Jim Reinhard is the industrious soul who wrote copy for both the boys sports and the events sections. Winnie Crawford took charge of the girls end of the sports department.

Lower left: Jane Heistand and Ramona Eme are burning last year's New Year's resolutions at So-Si-Y's first meeting of the New Year.

Lower center: Hope Cooper, Marian Male, Susanne Deahl, Jane Heistand, Gloria Madden, Carol Dullaghan, and Millicent Bright are making decorations in Miss Miller's room for the Tournament Dance.

Upper center: Philo just wouldn't be Philo without Philo's annual Christmas Party. This year it was held in the home of Jerry Dreisbach. The lovely Christmas music was supplied by Philo's string quartet. Pictured here are Marilyn Rheinfrank and Lorraine Frykberg playing away on their violins.

Upper right: The paper that has all the news when you want it has its annual picnic. It is none other than the South Side Times Picnic.

Lower left: Here are the South Side twirlers in action. These lovely lasses brighten up all the home games. This year they have become experts at marching. Everyone will remember the pep session in which the twirlers had a contest to see how well they knew the fundamentals of marching. They really did know their stuff!

Lower right: What's this? Why it's Ivan Lebamoff eating again, as usual, and once more his eyes are bigger than his stomach. Mr. Plummer doesn't seem to be helping matters any either; does he, Ivan? This is a snapshot taken at the Wranglers Picnic held at the Third Pavilion last fall. Boy, was it ever fun!

This is a start. You take it from here!
